

Names _____

Two Voice Poem

A two-voice poem is a poem written in two columns, where two different points of view/perspectives are explored, in a dialogue format. The purpose of a two-voice poem is to show the different perspectives as well as the similarities of two sides. These poems are meant to be read out loud in pairs, where the voices alternate/take turns to show the different perspectives and speak in unison to show the similarities.

Graphic Organizer for Poem

Voice:	Voice:
1.	1.
2.	2.
3.
4.	4.
5.	5.
6.
7.	7.
8.	8.
9.	